FRESNO, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER

The Legislature Probably Republican.

Election Returns From Other States.

First Figures From New York, Massachusetts and Iowa Nearly Correct.

Columnus, Ohio, November 2,—This has been a day of enxiety with Ohio politicians. It opened with the Republicans and Democrats both claiming the slection of their state tickets and a majority of the legislature. This forenoen the Democrats conceded the election of the Resublican state sixth he a larger the Republican state ticket by a large plurality than was given last night in the earliest of these dispatches. Tonight the Democratic state committee un-nounced no definite claims on the legiclature and the Republican state commit tee raised its claim to a majority of five tee raised its claim to a unjority of five on joint ballot as follows:

Senate, 17 Rupublicane, 19 Democrats.
House, 55 Republicane, 51 Democrate.
Total, 75 Republicane, 70 Democrate.
Woods county had been conceded to the Democrate until tonight when the complete returns caused the Republicane to claim it. Returns complete at Republicane to claim it. Returns complete at Republicane to making the sequences of the republicane to making the sequences that the sequences is sufficient to the sequences of the sequence Democrats will have a majority of two in the senate and the Republicans seven in the sonate and the Republicane can or-ganize the house. Senator Voight is the only one of the four senators elected on the fusion licket in Cincinnati who is a only one of the four senators abseted on the finian ticket in Olincimati who is a Republican, and he now becomes a factor. It Sonator Voight should vote with the Republicans on the organization of the senate or at any other time the vote would be a tie. When it was thought today that control of the logiciature might depend upon one vote there was suprehensioned trouble in some counties. Emissaries were sent out from state headquarters he close counties to watch the counting. The Ohio law provides that "not less than one nor more than five days from the date of election the deputy state supervisors in each county shall begin the official canvase of the vote and continue from day to day until completed." In event of protracted contests in the close counties the suspense of today might have continued until the legislature met next Jaumary.

Bince the change of the claims at Damneratic headquarters on the complexion of the legislature two important remove have been vigorously circulated. One is that John R. McLean will be pressed by the Ohio Democratey for the Democratic nomination for President in 1900, and that Senator Hanna will have opposition in his own party for election to the senate.

1900, and that Senstor Hanns will have opposition in his own party for election to the sensie.

It is claimed by these advocating Melesa for the presidential nomination that he deserves it for the reduction of the Republican plurality to less than half of what it was lest year, and of the Ropablican majority in the legislature on joint ballot to five. And the Democrate claim that the majority on joint ballot would be five the other way if they had an equal chance on contests. There are 33 members of the state can attend the end of the state can be read to the house, in which the Republicans called a majority of swen, while the Democrats have a majority of two in the sonate, and there are several counties so close on voto for representatives that saveral seats could be changed in that body. In the settlement of contested each the Republicans would have such so advantage in the house over the Democrats in the sentent that it is not likely the latter will be aggressors in that matter. This may allow the closs margin of the Republicans would called.

margin of the Ropullicaus to go uncontested.

There is another alleged movement which is causing much more comment, and that is the runor that Gavernor Bushnell will be brought out for annatur against Marcus A. Hanna. A. C. Meyers at Demucratic headquarters anounced tonight that Senator Hanna would never be eleuted to the senate on the close joint bellot that is claimed. Mr. Meyers said that if the close call on the legislature went against the Democratic in the official count of the close connties that the Democratic in the official count of the close connties that the Democratic in the official count of the close cannies that the Democratic in the official count of the close cannies that the Democratic in the official count of the close rannies that the Democratic in the official but the country in the close of the thody in electing Bushnell instead of Hanna to the sonate. Governor Bushnell and all others involved in this movement deny any knowledge of it or that they would have anything to do with it.

Commerce, Ohio, November 4.—Unofficial but complete returns show a Republican plurality of 25,520 in Onio. Both sides still claim a majority of the legiclature, the Republicane by five and the Democrate by three.

IOWA.

The Republican Plurality Placed at

DES MOINES, IOWS, November 3, ... The returns by countles are nearly all in now. Chairman McMillan of the Republican state committee has complete returns and estimates from the five remaining counties, and figures a plurality for Shaw, Republican, of about 31,782. He thinks that these figures will vary but little from the corrected returns when the five estimated counties come in. The plurality may be ant down as above 31,000 and below 32,000.

Chairman Walsh of the Democratic state committee has given out no formal statement. He thinks the later returns may reduce the plurality for Shaw to 20,000. returns and estimates from the five ra-

Two years ago it was 90,000 for Drake that started the last hook. The population of the according to the last of the Republican would have a superator toket. If the Population to be according to the superator toket. If the Population to be a superator toket, if the Population to be a superator toket. If the Population to be a superator toket, if the Population to be a superator toket. The population is a superator toket as the Population of the discontinuous properties and the publican. The senten has fifty members, of which their yeight are Republicaned and the superator toket. The house has 100 members, of which the Republican have sixty one will be a superator with the Republican have sixty one will be a superator with the Republican have sixty one was not large.

The Legislature Remains Republican—Van Wyck's Plurality.

New York, November 3.—Returns from the state and city elections resolved today do not change the result amounced by the Associated Press early last night. Returns from all counties in last night. Returns from all counties in the state indicate a plurality of more than 68,900 for Alton B. Parker, Democrat, for chief judge of the court of appeale, His plurality in Greater New York, in 137

Ten of the newly placed Republicans are said to be anti-Platt. In the present senate the Republican majority is 30, in the bow 78.

the Republican majority is 30, in the house 78.

The special election in the Third congressions districe, Brooklyn, resulted in a victory for Edmund H. Drigge, Democrat, aver William A. Francierast, Republican, by nearly 2000 majority. Leat year Francie Wilson, Republican, was elected in this district by more than 7500. He resigned to become postmaster of Brooklyn.

COLORADO.

An Official Count Necessary to Decide Who Has Won.

DENVER, November 3.—The result of restorday's election in this state is still in doubt so far as justice of the supreme court is concerned, and it will take the court is concerned, and it will take the official canwass to decide who has won. The Times, which amprorted Hayt, candidate of the Republicans and silver Republicans, claims his election by less than 1000. Returns and estimates so far received show that Haytis eighty-two votes in the lead. Counties yet to be heard from are divided and some doubtful.

or repeter that the lead. Ounties yet to be leard from are divided and some doubtful.

The chairman of the l'opuliet and Democratic perties claim that full returns will give their candidate, Gabbert, from 1000 to 1500 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Revised Returns Verify the First Estimates.
Boston, November 3.—Roger Wolcott

he Republican candidate, is re-elected the Republican candidate, is re-elected as governor of Massachusetts by a plurality of nearly $8,000. There are still a few precincts to be heard from but the total vote in these districts is only a few hundred. Evised returns show a total vote of 185,313 for Welcett, 79,335 for George Fract Williams, ragular Democratic candidate, and 14,129 for William Everett, the nominee of the National Democrate. Welcett's plurality was 164,523 last year, nearly 11,000 less than his total vote this year. This year's political complexion of the general house will be: Senators, Republicans 34, Damocrate 12, Independent 4, Prohibition 1.

KANSAS.

Torkka, Kansas, November 8 .- At late hour tonight the returns were still incomplete. The indications are that the Rapublicans have elected eight of the thirteen judges. The Rapublinot the turtreen longers. The Aspauling cause claim to have elected ten of the judges. On the other hand the fusionstee claim to have been successful in eight of the judden districts, but no fluures are given. Incomplete and uncollicist returns from 90 of the 105 course tics would indicate Republican victories in almost half of the county elections.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., November 3,-New Jersey assembly will have a Republican majority of twenty-one on joint ballet,

One firm had buying orders at the opening from Paris and Antwerp for about 300,000 bushels of May wheat. A falling off in northwest receipte was a factor. Chidago received 125 cars. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 818 cars; last week 766 were received. Receipts for two days last year, one a holiday, were 2,065 cars. Seaboard clearances were equal in wheat and finur to 577,000 bushels. Spot wheat in Liverpool was tirm at 1/2 advance. Eradstreet's report of the world's visible cupply made the increase in this cunetry east of the Rockies 4,103,000 bushels and in Europe and afloat an increase of 2,200,000 bushels, or 6,303,000 bushels increase in all. The market up to the time of the receipt of this news had fluctuated over a marrow range, selling as high as 95%2 and as low as 181/20, but turned very weak after the receipt of the Bradetreet's report, finally esting into a state of utler collapse. Early in the day it was claimed in a loose way that 1,000,000 bushels had been solid at New York and ontports for any torsign shipment. THE Los Angeles judge who awarded Marion Brooks $170 for teaching Congreeman Barlow how to do practical politics did not underestimate the value of the service. Judging by the conduct of the congressman from the Sixth district all the knowledge be accumulated under the Brooks' tutorchip was not worth a cent more than that sum.

The Secremento Bee of last Monday contained the following paragraph: Just bow large a part anothment playe in the game of politics may be fairly measured when the number of votes cast for Henry George Jr. is made known tomorrow night.

Well, Brother McClatchy, you see now that sentiment plays a very small part in the game of politics. THE Democratic brethren are finding erable comfort in the "off year" state and monicipal elections, and far be it from the Republican to deny them any of the consolation they are able to any of the meed it all. Republicans do not forget that there have been numerous occasions when the "off year" elections have been the source of considerable satistaction to themselves. The Frience Reconstant baseball team bas refired from the Examiner tournament because they could not get fair play from the Examiner umpires. No one who has een the crooked work of those umpires will blame the Freeno player at all.—Merced Sun.

That is the opinion of every distinct.

That is the opinion of every disinter-ested person who has witnessed the tearnament games in San Francisco. If the team made any mistake ut all it was in staying in the tournament as long so it did.

It. PITCHER WOODWARD, the New York newspaper man who bet on Bryan's election and as a consequence had to forfeit $1000 or ride a donkey across the continent, arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday, in compliance with the donkey across the continent, arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday, in compliance with the donkey to the same of t alternative, as bedraggled and grotesque a specimen of humanity as ever was seen on this western shore. Woodward started from New York 340 days ago without a doller, and by the ieros of with which to pay his way. He says he would not make the trip again for $25,000. If the young journalist had so much sense as determination he would be a great man.

THE San Francisco Report declares that though the government sold the Union Pacific ratiroad at a profit of $5,000,000, it was nevertheless a scandalous affair. Why? Simply because the Report be-lieves that the purchasers will make a profit of $205,000,000 out of the transac-tion. The Report is generally pretty careful in its statements, but this time it appears to have greatly overshot the mark. On what does it base its statement that such a profit will be made by the buyers? And is it of the opinion that the government should have held the road for that price? We should like to have a little light on this matter for to us it seemed that the government was making a fair bargain.

ness and make the best terms possible "IN OLD KENTUCKY" TONIGHT, ESTEEMED CONTEMPORARIES for the people. Freene county is one of the richest in California and its securi-ties are gilt-edged. Therefore, if our bonded indebtedness is to be refunded, it should be at as low a rate of interes as we have a right to expect, and the premium should be a substantial one. As for the term for which the new bonds shall run, it is our opinion that if it is proposed to make them forty-year bonds the proposition will be liable to suffer deleat. The life of the bonds should not exceed twenty years. Running that length of time, and bearing 11% per cent interest, they ought to prove an inviting investment to capitalists, either local or foreign.

A Polish chemist has invented a shell that will minimize the horrors of war if utilized for the purpose, Like the prize fight it is not expected to kill, but'to put the exteemed enemy to sloep. It is made of gelatine and filled with raw which is a powerful anesthetic. When it explodes everybody within reach of laterness cutty my and cost to sleep for its fumes curls up and goes to sleep for fifteen hours. After reading about those newlangled bullets which open up like an umbrells as they plough their way through the human form we feel very much like indorsing the Polish gentleman's invention.

It is to be lioped that the differences between the Atbletic Park Association and the Britishican baseball team can be satisfactorily adjusted. If this is not done or the players released from fors to San Diego as the vermiform appen-dix city. Which explains the feeling down there in favor of amputation. this popular sport will certainly receive a setback from which it will not recover

RANDOM REMARKS.

Judging from the result of the election Greater New York is more than ripe snough to fail.

If the little man from Cadiz will lay off a few more members of the fire de-partment Freeno will be an inviting town for incendiaries.

Mayor Phelan's remonstrance against the pardening of Stuffer Sternberg show that there are 113 righthousemen in Ser Francisco. San Francisco is all right. It has eleven chances of salvation to Sodom a one.

Mr. Robert A. Van Wyck may now get drunk as often as he pleases without heing subjected to the indignity of being dragged into the police courts. His pall as mayor of Greater New York insures bim that immunity.

Denig's Pony Express says that a cor-tain Stockton girl wears a band of five-dollar pleces for garters. This prompts an esteemed exchange to sak how Denig found it out. Well "Pony" Denig is just tall enough to see that high.

Mrs. Mary Dillman of Oakland, who was ejected from her home the other day because she refused to pay rent, is considered accountle by her neighbors. If the failure or refusal to pay rent is a sign of eccentricity, then the world is full of eccentric people.

A woman was arrested in Los Angele A woman was arrested in Los Anguses the other lay for picking pockets in a church. Kow a man knows better than to pick packets in a church. He knows that he would be more likely to get poker chipse and nickel-in-the-slot checks than coin of the realm.

A society girl of San Joee "smashed" a man in the jaw the other night because he caught her by then ran. She believed he intended to rob her. Perhaps one of our San Joee exchanges can tell what she would have done had she thought the bold fellow intended to kies her.

Marion Brooks, the Los Angelee politician who eued Congreseman Barlow for $2000 for services and money alleged to have been furnished to Barlow during the campaign of 1894, has been given indepent for only $170. Never mind; Mr. Brooks has had $2000 worth of fun out of the lawenit, and is no doubt well satisfied, while Mr. Barlow has fost much more than $2000 worth of reputation.

John Murphy, a paddler, H. J. Duke John Marnhy, a paddler, H. J. Doke, manager of an express company, and Captain Jenke of the N. G. C., all of San Francisco, appear to be three of a kind. Mr. Murphy best a bulky horse with the sharp edge of a hou until the autimal dropped in its tracks; while Mr. Doke and Mr. Jonks was committed with feed that their horses had to eat the woodwork of their stalls in order to keep from starving. Mr. Alturphy has been fined $150, which is doing very well for San Francisco, and the casen of the villains Jonks and Dake are util to be disposed of. May they fair as badly as Murphy.

Los Angeles Timer: The great hotel for men which was recently opened by D. O. Mills in New York is an excellent example of practical pullanthropy. It is difficult to think of a more ellicacious method of making a little money go a long way to improve the condition of residents in large cities than this of providing healthy and comfortable dwellings and roome at anoderate price. One of the beauties of this form of philinging such some at anoderate price. One of the beauties of this form of philing-interpoly is that it can be made more through is that it can be made more than self-supporting, as has breen shown in the Peabody tenements in London, which for many years have paid an average profit of 5 per cent. A portlan of the large sums of money that are sent away every year for foreign missions might jadiciously be diverted to the improvement of the dwelling accommodations of poor people in the large cities of the United States.

There is no rest for you.

Alameda .lrgns: Henry George was a theoriet, pure and simple. He could work out the salvation of man and the regeneration of society in a treaties in the most convincing manner, but he was about as impractical was a child, and had absointely no executive shifty. That a man of this mold should be named—and with some considerable show of being chosen—for the first mayor of Greater New York, a position carrying enormous responsibilities and demanding the most executive ability, is one of the phenomens of a democratic people in the act of governing them selves. Mr. George could not manage a small nowspaper successfully, yet the theories he proposed for the reorganization of society had great vogus. Of course, nothing in the abova is to be construed as intimating that he was not sincers. Undensitiedly, the hold he had upon the people was due to his manifest honesty of purpose.

Treasurer. Levanted in 1866—A Mystery is at Last Cleared

In 1866 Stephen Gaster, who was then treasurer of Freeno county, disappeared mysteriously while on his way from Millerton, where the county seat was then located, to San Francisco, Upon subsequent examination of his books t was found that he was a defaulter to the amount of $7200.

The theory was generally accepted that the treasurer had been murdered on the coast, probably for the money that he had levented with. The les een of him was when he left Millerton on the stage for Stockton, whence he was to go by boat to San Francisco, which was the route to the coast before which was the route to the ceast before the coming of the railroad. C. P. Genverse, who had been accounted with the treasurer in business matters, left on the same slage with theater for the metropolis.

Converse returned in a short time, but the treasurer never put in an appearance. Converse explained that they separated in Stockton, and that his triend had signified his intention of returning home in a few days.

Sunction rested on Converse as being respansible for the treasurer's mysterious disappearance. This was breed merely on the ground, however, that Converse was the last man in his contains.

But now, after three decades, Mr Converse, who is engaged in mining in Seven Members of the Club Voted to Quit the Park Association.

The moeting of the Fresso Republica eachall fram and its friends at the Athletic Club rooms has evening was a very interesting one.

Joe Shen called the meeting to order and stated its object to be to decide whether or not the team would remain under the management of the Athletic Park Association.

William Glass was called upon to act as phairman and M. J. Duncan was chosen secretary. Mr. Giassgrated that it was derirable for the entire club membership to agree that whatever action was taken should be sinding in all. He did not want to see the club divided and thereby weakened.

It was them moved and esconded that the cub remain no longer under the management of the Athletic Park Association.

Catcher Chance raised the question as to where salaries would come from the compounder the management of the Athletic Park Association.

Pitcher Thompson also desired to say a few words on the same shoject. He said the salaries of the team had always been paid promptly and that the contracts with the association should not be discontinued until the longs had secured written releases.

Joe Shea contended that the contracts were void and that they expired at the first parts the also which had a secured written releases.

Carthy, Hanton, Hantey, Frances, and roe and Shea voiced aye and Thompson nay.

Chairman Glass suggested that a recess be taken and the mambers of the club adjoint to an ante room and see if they could not agree an some course of action that would be unanimous and binding on the whole membership. After a few minutes the team returned from the consultation and reported.

Jos Shea stated that the seven members had decided to stand by their former resolution to willdraw and that the team would continue with Chance and Thompson as the battery if the Athletic Park Association gave them tieft release. Ohence and Thompson refused to be bound by the action of the club unions released.

Atthetic rark Association gave them their release. Ohance and Thompson refused to be bound by the action of the club unless released.

Mr. Shea then made a motion, which was day seconded, that every man that voted ave, and Ohance and Thompson in case of release, be in honor bound by the action of the club. The motion was carried without a differenting vote.

After the meeting loe Shea was seen by a Remember 18 has been as well under the from the first at the club would prospur equally at well under the former management, Friends of the club will be called upon to give their financial support and good will. "If Ohance and Thompson are housed by the useo-clution." said Mr. Shea, "we will secure a new feather,"

The buys consider that Chance and Thompson are houses in their position and in orticisms were heard. Mr. Chance stated to the reporter that he had no desira to leave Fresan to play with some other team, as had been removed. He though that the Athletic Park Association might desire to continue Mr. Thompson and himself in its unploy and engage other players to take the places of them that quit. He considers that the association contract is binding and would not care to break it. Mr. Chance will go east in February to lay buil, in epeaking of Stantary's game, said: "I know that I umpfined a rotten game, but I couldn't help it. It is no secret in Seims that one prominent grower near Seims is making preparations to consign his prume crop to eastern markets. That his example should be followed by the president of the only bank in our rown seems incredible, but the lact is that a business man of this community, presiding over the only bank here, intonds to consign the crop of two surloads of prunes to an easter broker and turn over the selling of the same to this castern agent, who has no interest in the California fruit industry beyond collecting his commission.

Pulatial is a much overworked word

Bonner Stables.

Palntial is a much overworked word, and you might think it rank exaggoration to apply the adjective to mything to ordinary as a stable. Yet there are stables, not only in Europe, but in this rountry, which me truly palatial.

We have some rich men in America who are very fond of horses and who have generally indulged their little famicis without regard to expense, but it is an Englishman who has the apparatation of housing his horses in finer style than any other individual in the world. He is the Duke of Westminster, who owns a good sile of London and whose income from his tenants alone is larger than that of Queen Victoria.

The ducal stables are part of the estate known as Eaton Hall. This is the duke's country home, and it comprises a great tract of hand near the pretty little city of Chester on the River Dec. Of course, it is well known that the duke has for years owned one of the mest fagnous racing studs in England, but no other owner of race horses over quartered his animals in such samptons style as he. At only a short distance from his $8,000,000 palace are the stable buildings. There is one big structure, and ranged around in this in the form of a quadraugle are a number of smaller ones. In the center of the square thus formed is a high brouze statuo of a rearing horse held by a groon. The chief fenture about the main stable in its size. The first floor is big comple to drill a regiment of cavalry in. Instead of the rows of stalls which you might expect to see there are wide corridors from which open rooms. These recons are the quarters of the aristocantic favorities of the turf. They are equine bondoirs, but in point of favory in the see have head by when so have lived. If the other horses have private partners denied they me, each with two private exidences.

photographs and oil paintings of the horses themselves and of their illustrious ancostors. Without going into a detailed description of these detached stables you can well see that few horses in the world are better eared for, and, as if it worn not enough to treat them when alive better than most human beings are treated, their ducal master does not forget them even after they have gone the way of all ilesh. One of the buildings composing the stable group is an equino manuscleum, and in it is the skeleton of a horse strong on golden wire. The homes are those of the famous Tonchstone, who was the put of the hard Marquis of Westminster. Only a short distance away, just beyond the corner of the deer park, is the horse cometery. There have been laid away from time to time the noble and faithful animals which have been to victory the Westminster colors over many a track and some or which the name of the horse, some of his most matable achievements and the date of his death are inscribed. Still more famous, but not a whit more magnificent, are the stables connected with Buckinghum palace. They are located behind the garden and at some little distance from the great deserted palace with the open selden visits. But the stables are loop to just as thoroughly as though the queen selden visits. But the stables are loop to just as thoroughly as though the queen ways at buckinghum all the time. It is a royal flashington.

as thoroughly is though the. It is a royal institution.

The royal mows is the official mane of the queen's stables, and the head stableman, who is known as the head stableman in name only, however, the real manuer of the shalls being the superintendent. Outside the massive imposing gatoway which forms the entrance for the royal mews stands a sentry from the Buckingham palace guard, and the visitor who wants to see how any other palaces are the palaces of the royal mews stands a sentry from the Buckingham palace guard, and the visitor who wants to see how are the palaces of the palace armed with a pass from the master of horse himself.

But there is really less of interest to be seen in the Buckingham stables, if a you leave out the pergeons state coaches, than at Enton Hall. There are not even private rooms for the horses. Even the famous "eremus" are tied in open stalls. Big. roomy, comfortable stalls they are, but stable hos a substantial look, for it was built to list and for decades, but for centuries. The floors are of stone, sanded in patterns, and the stalls are carpeted with clean straw, healty braided at the entrance. None of these horses, as a malter of face, is really valuable, when compared with great race horses. Ormorde, for whom Macdanough, the Offinedo, for whom anathomorph for Cattrorin millionaire, paid the Duko of Westminster $150,000 in 1893, brought roces than "all the queen's howest would if sold in a lump at the bullet works univer-integral would if sold in a tump at the highest market price.

In this country the really polatial stables are those which our multimitionaires have built in the big cities. New York has probably more of these than any other city. The stables which are connected with the big stock forms, while in many cases extensive and contestable, are generally plain both us to interior as well as exterior, but the grant homes for the borses of rich men are apt to samek of the magnificence of the owner's own dwelling. When John Jacob Astor built his handsome new palace on Fifth avenité, New York, a

Jacob Astor built his handsome new palace on Fifth aventie, New York, a few years ago, he put his stable on the adjoining lot in the rear, and, as city blocks are not over 300 feet theep from such to own, it brought his stable within less than 25 feet of his house. But the stable is such a fone as even a fastidious man could not object to.

Several New York cross streets up from nor lined with stables, but as the upper stories of the same buildings are occurred in many cases by artists as upper stories of the same buildings are occupied in many cases by artists as studies it can be seen that they are by no means ordinary stables.

In Brassels the height of house them to age in public streets is determined by age in public streets is determined by no means ordinary stables.

INTERIOR OF THE VANDERBUT STARLES. The Vanderbilt stables, which were established by William H. who was passionately foul of horse, were at one time the fluest in the city. They agained four city lots, and two of them were carner lots at that. The stalls were of polished out with madagany trimmings and ornamented with chinical work. Handsome rags and casy chairs gave the place the air of a drawing room rathur than of a stable. On everything, from the grillwork over the entrance to the bruss bound wooden pails, was to be seen the Vanderbilt monogram. But the Vanderbilt stables are no longer kept up as they were when Mand S was kept there as a carriage horse.

no longer kept up as they were when Mand S was kept them as a carriage horso.

The stable of Cornelius Vanderbilt is, architecturally, the fitnest in the city, for, instead of boing a plain brick structure, it conforms in style to that of his landsome home. In the graceful, stone trimmed gables are modalitous from which jut hounds' heads in terra catta, and the string course above the first ficer is marked with other medalitons of artistic execution. The material is pressed brick and granite. The front duors are solid pieces of beautifully curved ode swung on massive hinges of bruss. The interior is almost imposing, for the view from the entrances, takes in the done covered court which extends through the second story and is covered by a large skylight.

Robert Benner's stable is a neat, serviceable structure of pressed brick with mandstone trimmings. It is located on Fifty-fifth street, just of Fifth avence and within 20 fost of his own residence. It is shut off from the street by a high stone wall topped by an iron railing and it stands in the center of two city lots, being surrounded by a dirt executing walk. Inside are tenrouny box shalls finished with hard hearess cases with plate glass fromisthrough which can be seen sets of filter and wood. There are several black walnut hearess cases with plate glass fromisthrough which can be seen sets of filter arrytewn, and she is still the apple of his cyp.

Main above. Years ago Frank Work, when he was one of the rich men of the metropolia, built on Fifty-seventh street, New York, one of the meast olahorate stables in that city. The first story was entirely of rough granite, and the other two stories were of brick with scantte trimming. This was Mr. Work's home as well as his stable, for he lived there most of the time with his horses, his dags and his cale. The stable was 50 feet with and 110 feet long, which is larger than most city houses. The

A Cycle Secsaw For Fairs.

A carrious machino is designed to provide fun and amusement at bacaars, exhibitions and country fairs. It is the quarireyele, or cycle seesaw, and assemmedates a quartet, to whom it gives the pleasure of the ocean motion on dry land. The machine measures 9 feet in length and weighs between 60 and 70 pounds. Situated between 61s four wheels is a rotary shaft, supported by a set of eight steel hearings. Upon the shaft there are a couple of large sprace, twheels, over which a chain passes to the rear axis. Two long arms of setel exhed outward at each end of the machine, and on the extremities of these arotaxed the four seats. When the riders got into position, the machine is started off, the arms move up and down and this seesaw metion keeps the inachine going.—New York Triume.

SEEBACH AND THE AGENT.

rman Sidry of an American Attempt to Boom a Sewing Machine. The following story, which was pub-bed in German in connection with death of Marie Scelach, the noted the death of Mario Secteach, the noted Derman actress, shows very well the conception of American affairs which still prevails in Germany to a certain actout. Seebach was here more than 20 years ago, and it is scarcely lessible that such an incident as is described would have taken place then, but many such stories are tidd in Germany today as illustrative of American enterprise. According to this remainscence Mario Beebach one day received a message that a gentleman wished to see her. She told the servant to send him to her drawing room in the hotel, and when he arrived he introduced himself as certain Colanel Smith. Then he plunged

The Use of the Great Tes.

The negroes of the West Indies use the great too constantly in climbing. Several years ago, while spending some time at one of the famous reserts in Jamaica, I had an opportunity to observe the skill with which the black women, who do a great part of the menial labor, carried stone, morton and other building materials on their heads to the top ing materials on their neads to the way of a five story tower in a part of the bettel not then finished.

Much of the unerring accuracy with which they (women and girls) chased each other up and down the long ladders, with heavy loads skillfully poised ou their woodly pates, was due to the firmness with which they grasped each rung of the ladders with the great to. They did not place the ball or the hollow of the foot on the rung, but the groove at the juncture of the great towith the body of the foot, and they held fast by making the back of the other toes afford the other grapping surface. Hata and Bonnets.

The first autumn hats and bonnets in colors are durker tones of the eddily braided, gay bued styles that have been so popular all summer. The fris, violet and periwhike shades are repeated, the various dyes in green and brown straw, and these and other showy colors will rival the black models that are to usurp me small periane of the domain of autumn fashious in millinery, and wholly black trimmings will rule very largely to the exclusion of the mass of color that has so predominated for seasons past. There will be great use of large, broad, finify ostrich plumes, with little or no use on hats of real elegance of the little stark, stiff, stuffed, tricolored ell-gies with dyed heaks and logs, bead eyes, and wired wings that have so long been looked upon as un essential decomition of all fashionable lats. —New York

A STRANGE MIX UP.

How the Theft of a lileycle Led to Emburrassing Complications.

Among the stronge complications for high the bicycle has been responsible which the bleyde has been responsible the following is rather a masterpiece in point of intricacy. Those persons who took part in it are now disposed to view the incident with rome pride as a trinuaph of confusion and misunderstanding not likely to be duplicated.

1., who lives far up town, had occasion to visit a bleyde stare on the Boulevalu a few days ago. He left his which outside, man the rack in which not desperat machines for cut. While how a full allow by his creand hisde he was affectable.

through the door just in time to see a man spring upon his unguarded wheel and ride off at a furious pace down the treet. With an exclamation of rage B, rashed to the sidewalk, scized one of the wheels from the rack and started off in hot pursuit of the thiof.

The proprietor of the shop stead for a moment aghast. He had not seen the beginning of the trouble, and the only thing cherr to him was that his supposedly honest customer had made an astenishingly bold attempt to stead a wheel from the rack. There was only much thing to be done. Jumping upon another wheel, he joined in the chase, and the three secreted up the Boulevard in admirable racing style. The real third proved the poorest rider of the three, as the shopkeeper was unquestionably the best, and the result of this state of affairs was that the distances between the different members of the trio grow speedily less. As they drew together a truck crossed the avenue, crowding them into a small space. The rate at which they were going precluded any dismounting, and the three came into collision with a resounding crash. Before they bud fairly extricated themselves a policeman appeared. His first proposition was to "run them all in" for scoreling, but, impressed by the unsual excitement of his prisoners, who proposition was to "run them all in" for scorribing, but, hupressed by the un-usual excitement of his prisoners, who seemed to be more disturbed in mind than ordinary scorchers, he waited to hear their stories.

This, as may be imagined, was no only one who caw humer in the situation. Knowing that he had nothing to say for himself, he stood by and grimed, while the shopkreper and his customer sputtered out angry and conflicting accounts of the affair. But the truth was finally ascertained. As he collared the guilty man and dismissed the other two the policeman amounced that mechange of secrething would be pressed against anybody.

"If I have two or three more cases like this to settle," he remarked to a bystuder, "it's a lawyer I'll be callin when he is retired, and in landreds of cases leng before retirement, is to hand upon farm and locate on it. Three of the admirals on the retired list, headed by Admiral Ammen, are the owners of farms in the immediate locality of Washington, and any number of other officers are similarly provided for, though their farms are not so extensive. They seem to want stretching room, and it will be notled that when they do locate they seeme big places. Their minds run into stack and chicken raising. The officers of the marine corps have been noted for years as the owners of the specifical horses owned or driven along Washington, and they have been always prominent in connection with one racing associations and organizations. Kaval officers have been similarly prominent. It is different with army by prominent. It is different with army officers. Their ambition seems to be for nice houses in the cities. The naval of ficers' ideas all run toward the country I don't like to give names, but I could give dozens of illustrations to prove what I say, if it were necessary. Take a look at the incoming cars from any of the suburban places around Washing ton any morning, and there will be sufficient proof of what I say."-Wash ington Stur.
